The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday March 28. to Thursday March 31. 1698.

Malaga, March 4. N. S.

THE Portland Man of War, Capt. Littleton Commander, came lately into this Port with 5 Engliſh Ships under his Convoy bound home from the Levant: He called by the way at Algiers, where he was received with much Civility by that Government, who at his entrance into the Road ſaluted him with 21 Guns, and ſent him a Preſent of freſh Proviſions. We hear the Forces of Algiers have lately had a Battle with the Moors ſubject to the King of Fez near Tremezen, in which the latter loſt all their Baggage and 8000 Men.

Cadiz, March 9. Our laſt Advices from the Havana give an account, that the Galeons and Flota from New-Spain which were put in there, having ſupplied themſelves with what they wanted, would ſail in few days; ſo that they may be expected home in a ſhort time. Orders are come from Madrid for fitting out the Fleet for New-Spain, ſo as that they may be ready to ſail about the month of June. The departure of the Ships deſigned for Buenes-Aires is put off for ſome time.

Madrid, March 19. The King of Spain was taken ill on the 28th of the laſt month with a great Oppreſſion on his Lungs, accompanied with a Fever, but upon the application of proper Remedies, his Majeſty is at preſent much better, though ſtill very weak. The Conde d'Oropeſa, formerly chief Miniſter, and the Duke de Montalto, who were both retired from Court by the King's Order, received his Majeſties command on the 4th of this month to return thither, as they did the day following; and the Conde d'Oropeſa is ſince declared Preſident of Caſtille, by virtue of which Office he is to preſide in the Aſſembly of the Cortes or States of the Kingdom, which there is a Diſcourſe of calling together in the preſent Juncture of Affairs. The Marquis de Harcourt, Ambaſſador from France, has not yet been able to obtain a private Audience of the King, by reaſon of his Indiſpoſition, tho he very much preſſes for it; but the Cardinal de Toledo is appointed to confer with him upon what he may have Orders to propoſe to this Court.

Dantzick, March 26. Yeſterday this City, according to Cuſtom, did Homage to the King of Poland, who at the ſame time Confirmed their Priviledges. The Deputies of the Lithuanian Army had laſt Monday an Audience of his Majeſty, in which they deſired the Money which the King has promiſed them, may be paid directly to themſelves, and not through the hands of General Sapieha, as he would have it; and that the enſuing Dyet, which continues fixed for the 16th of April, may be held on Horſeback, and in the open Field; Thoſe of the Palatinate of Sendomit agree with them in this laſt Demand; but it is not believed the King will comply with their deſires in this particular, ſince that Aſſembly would thereby be made liable to much diſorder.

Vienna, March 22. A Treaty has lately been concluded between this Court and the Biſhop of Wurtzburg and the Duke of Saxe-Gotha, by which thoſe Princes are to ſend each a Body of Horſe and Foot into the Emperor's Service, amounting together to about 6000 men; and it is believed the like will be done by ſeveral other Princes of Germany. Recruits are dayly paſſing thro this City, in their way to Hungary, ſo that the Regiments there will this year be very early compleated. Great Quantities of Stores and Ammunition are gathering together here, in order to be ſent by Water, as ſoon as the Danube is free from Ice; and a Train of Artillery is likewiſe getting ready againſt that time. We have little news from the Frontiers, only that a Body of Turks are gone from Belgrade to Zwornich, with a Supply of Proviſions and Ammunition for that Gariſon, and that a Party of Germans are ſent from Peter-Waradin to endeavour to intercept them.

Francfort, March 30. The Count of Weylburgh, General of the Elector Palatine's Forces, went hence laſt Friday to Weylbrug, where he will tarry a few days, being afterwards to go to Duſſeldorp. Several Recruits are ſent from this place for Hungary, and more will ſhortly follow; New Levies are likewiſe making in theſe parts for the Service of the Republick of Venice. We hear 2000 French Foot are come to Landau and Saar-Louis. The Prince of Naſſau-Saarbruck is expected here, to take poſſeſſion of his Eſtate in the Palatinate, which during the War was in the hands of the French. It's ſaid, the Palatine Forces which lie quartered in the Bergſtract, and in the Country of Juliers, will ſhortly be Reviewed in the Elector Palatine's preſence, part of them being deſigned for the Emperor's Service in Hungary, and the reſt to remain in the Palatinate, and his Electoral Highneſſes Officers are raiſing in the Bergſtract, to compleat their Regiments againſt that time.

Hambourg, April 1. The Duke of Holſtein is ſtill here, not having yet fixed the time of his departure for Stockholme. Our laſt Advices from Berlin ſay, the Elector of Brandenbourg deſigned ſhortly to make a turn into Pruſſia, in order to which his Guards ſet out on the 17th of March, and the Officers of his Court would be going on the 29th. We hear from Poland, that the Queen Dowager ſeems much diſſatisfied, and gives occaſion to ſuſpect that ſhe countenances the Deſigns which the Rokotz carry on in favour of her ſecond Son Prince Alexander, in caſe they could bring things to a new Election.

Bruſſels, April 3. On the firſt Inſtant the Prince of Vaudemont left Nethen, to go and take poſſeſſion of his Government of Milan; and the Marquis of Bedmar, who is appointed to ſucceed him as General of Arms in the Spaniſh-Netherlands, is come hither, and Orders have been ſent to the Officers in the Service of Spain to obey him as ſuch. Monſieur Heemskirke, Ambaſſador from the States-General to the Moſt Chriſtian King, arrived here yeſterday in his way to Paris. We hear General Coehorne is at Courtray, and will there wait for the Elector of Bavaria, who intends to go hence next Friday to Oudenarde, and the next day to Courtray, where having tarried a few days, his Electoral Highneſs will viſit the Cities of Ath, Mons, and Charleroy. We are informed, that the

French